THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our president seems to be suffering from writer's block. So there will be no message from the president in this issue. Hopefully, the block will dissolve and he will be back next time.

Nominations Elections

The election of officers of the UCCOGS is held in November of all odd numbered years. Preparation for the election is begun in August when the Executive Board meets to appoint a committee to nominate interested members for the following positions:

- President--who shall call meetings of the Chapter and its officers, preside at meetings, appoint Committees and their chairperson, and perform duties generally required of this office.
- Vice President--who shall perform the duties of the President in his/her absence or incapacity.
- Recording Secretary--who shall keep records of all Chapter and Executive Board meetings.
- Corresponding Secretary--who shall handle the correspondence pertaining to the Chapter and be responsible for the inventory and shipping of all book orders.
- Treasurer--who shall maintain the financial records of the Chapter, pay expenses as authorized by the Executive Board: receive membership dues, record donations, and prepare financial reports as requested by the Executive Board.

If you are interested in serving in any elected position or if you would like to place names in nomination, please, contact any member of the Executive Board as listed on page 2 of this newsletter. The slate of proposed officers will be published in the next issue (September-October) of the Union Echoes. And the election will take place at the regular November meeting. For those unable to attend the meeting there will be a mail-in ballot published in the November-December Union Echoes.

Recent Acquisitions by the Union County Chapter of The Ohio Historical Society

As most Union County family historians know, the genealogy and history of Union and Delaware counties are closely interwoven. Our librarian, Nancy Katzenbach, is truly pleased to announce that the UCCOHS recently purchased the complete collection of Delaware County, Ohio cemetery books from the Delaware County Chapter The Ohio Historical Society (DCCOHS). There are eleven books covering eighteen Delaware County townships:

Berkshire Township	Kingston - Trenton - Porter Townships
Berlin Township	Liberty - Orange Townships
Brown Township	Marlboro - Oxford Townships
Concord Township	Radnor - Thompson Townships
Delaware - Troy Townships	Scioto Township
Genoa - Harlem Townships

These books were compiled by members of the DCCOHS. They will soon be available to researchers in the UCCOHS section of the Marysville Public Library, 231 S. Plum Street. The books CANNOT be checked out.

Our Webmaster, Rebekah Headings, tells me that at least half the E-mails that she sends out are still bouncing. Please, make an effort to update your E-mail address if you are no longer receiving Rebekah's mailings of the UCCOHS minutes and other information. Simply send a message to Rebekah at rebekahmary@chuckeryohio.com and let her know that it's an update. At the same time you might want to Cc: the message to Jeanne Haynes, corresponding secretary, beanzel@ignet.com and Barb Nichol, membership chairperson, darbycrk@midohio.net.

Recent Researchers at the Marysville Library

It has been a busy summer in the UCCOHG section of the Marysville Public Library. So busy, in fact, that we had no space available for the usual table of visitors and the surnames they are researching. There were twenty-seven researchers who left addresses or E-mail addresses (some left both) and gave permission for their names to be published in the Union Echoes. They had a combined total of forty-five different surnames and in some instances the same surname was being researched by more than one visitor. In the following list the number that appears after the surname indicates the number of visitors interested in that surname. The surnames are (in some cases the editor's best guess):

ADAM, ALEXANDER, ANDREWS,
BELTZ, BETHARD, BOLENBAUGH,
BOWEN, BRAKE, BROOKINS, CARR,
CHAPPEL, COLLINS, CRAIG, DAVIS,
DRAPER, FERGUSON, GRANGER,
HEICHENRAHN [?], HISEY,
HOFFMAN, JACKMAN, KENDALL,
MITCHEL, MORTON, ODELL, OWEN,
PORSCHE, RAUCH, REED (3),
ROBINSON, SCOTT, SPECK/SPECKT,
SHIRK (3), SMITH (3), WASON,
WILLIAMSON.

If you see any surnames that you are interested in and you would like to contact the library visitor who is also interested in that surname, send an E-mail to llgbug@genealogybug.net and I will send the contact information. If you do not have E-mail send a request to UCCGS Query Committee, P.O. Box 438, Marysville, Ohio 43040; be sure to make it clear that you would like to have the library visitor contact information for May-July visitors.

Queries

I am researching the battle of Gettysburg. In particular, I am interested in the fighting that took place on the evening of 2 July for East Cemetery Hill between Hays' Louisianans and Harris' Ohioans. In an effort to understand this part of the battle better (aside from reading all the known literature that's been written on the subject, which I've done) I am currently looking for any letters, diary entries or any oral family traditions that refer to the fighting by the participants that survived. If you have any information and are willing to share it, please, contact: Brent Reidenbach, 8438 Red Eagle Court, Lorton, Virginia 22079, E-mail: coachr71@gmail.com.

Karla Harper, 6089 Mt. Olive Green Camp Rd. Marion, Ohio 43302
E-mail: karlaharper6089@yahoo.com wants to know where Francis Harper is buried. She also needs the names of his parents. His Union County death certificate states that he died 11 Feb 1877. He is her husband's 3rd great-grandfather.

Where Have All the Minutes Gone?

By now readers have probably noticed that the minutes of meetings have gone missing from the Union Echoes. While reports of each month's meetings will continue to appear on these pages, the minutes will no longer be reproduced in their entirety. Anyone who does not receive the electronic version of the minutes should contact Marie Bouic at bouic1@midohio.net, or Rebekah Headings at rebekahmary@chuckeryohio.com.

St. Paul Lutheran Church Genealogy

St. Paul Lutheran Church in Chuckery is currently working on updating the church genealogy book which was compiled in 1993. We are asking that anyone who descends from or is related to any past or present member of St. Paul Lutheran Church to please contact us so that we may update your information. If you have information that you are willing to share on any of our charter members or past pastors and their families, that would be helpful as well. Charter families that were not included in the 1993 genealogy include J. George Bishop (later changed to Bishop), Emanuel Bishop, John B. Burns, Theodore A. Grener, J. Frederick Loschky, George Mayer, George Scheiderer, Jacob Scheiderer, John Stephen Scheiderer, Daniel Streng, J. John Thiergartner, and John Vollrath. If you would like to see a copy of your family information that was included in the 1993 genealogy, we can provide a copy. Please contact Rebekah Headings at rebekahmary@chuckeryohio.com, or phone her at (937) 243-5203. Thank you!

What's New?

If you, like me, are sometimes overwhelmed by all the paper you collect while researching your family history the UCCOGS can help. We all look forward to the newsletters that we receive after joining any of the various genealogical and historical societies. And there are probably only a few who don't wish that they could get their hands on the information in back issues of those newsletters. Buying those back issues means adding even more paper to the collection you already have.

The UCCOGS has done something about the dilemma faced when purchasing back issues of the Union Echoes. Now you have a choice! We have 28 years (1981-2008) of Union Echoes, on compact discs (CD). They are not searchable, but the index for each year is at the beginning of the year. All pages can be printed individually if needed. They sell for $20 plus postage (Ohio residents add $1.35 sales tax). This new item is at the bottom of Union County Chapter OGS Publications List located at the end of the newsletter.

Two of our new members, Pamela Murray and Kevin Longberry have submitted items for publication in Union Echoes. Pamela Murray didn't waste any time submitting her Union County pioneer ancestry and was inducted into the Union County Pioneers at the Pioneer Banquet in May. Her narrative about those ancestors appears later in this issue. Many thanks to both of you from your editor; she is always looking for member input.

From Your Editor

The Union Echoes is your newsletter. I am here to present the things that are important to you, the members. Things that you should always be able to find on these pages include upcoming events planned by the UCCOGS, additions to our collection at the Marysville Library, member queries, newly submitted member pedigrees, and actions taken by the executive board on behalf of the membership. You should also look for member submitted material. I have been very fortunate since being appointed to this position as the members have been generous with their contributions, large and small. No contribution is too small if it demonstrates what life was like for our ancestors, or if it might possibly assist other members. If it is just something interesting, entertaining, or humorous it can still add to our enjoyment of our day and our family history. So I hope that more of you will decide to contribute to the Union Echoes. Let me know what it is that you would like to see on these pages. What don't you want to see? I also want to thank those of you who have been so generous with your time and knowledge.

NINETY-FIRST BIRTHDAY
Of Uncle Robert McMillen West of Town
Celebrated on the Fourth of July.

Uncle Robert McMillen, west of town, who was ninety-one years of age on the Fourth of July, was made happy Sunday by a number of his descendants gathering at the house of his son, John M. McMillen, where the venerable old gentleman has made his home for some time, and appropriately celebrated the passing of the ninety-first milestone of his life.

Mr. McMillen was feeling exceedingly good for one of that age and enjoyed the day's visit and also the dinner with his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. A big dinner was served at noon which was heartily enjoyed by all and the many pleasantries of the day will long remain in the memory of all present.

Mr. McMillen is a pioneer of the neighborhood in which he lives, having located there about sixty years ago when the dense forest was full of game. He was born in Jefferson county, Ohio, situated in the eastern part of the state and came to this county while a vigorous young man and helped to improve and make this country what she is today—the garden spot of Ohio, populated by the best people in the United States in the best government in the world.

The following abridged newspaper article was transcribed and contributed by UCCOGS member Kevin Longberry (klongberry1@verizon.net). Kevin also mentioned that some of his ancestors can be found in the article: Tonguet, Clark, Calloway.

1832-1876
Richwood in the Past

A Historical sketch of the past and present, and read,
by A.J. Blake, Esq.,
at the centennial fourth of July celebration, at Richwood.

The history of Richwood, as well as Claibourne Township, cannot well be traced back, with any degree of certainty of definiteness, any later than the year 1832. From that time until the present the chain is pretty well unbroken. As I am assigned to work on the history of Richwood, I find that I am necessarily forced to link a portion of it to that of Claibourne Township. I would dwell more on the Township, had I not been confined to the town. Hence our county cousins will not feel slighted if I do not give extended notice of their early doings and virtues.

I find, upon investigation, that we once resided in Jackson Township, or Jackson Township was here. This was in 1832; back of this I shall not attempt to go.

I have procured a copy of the original survey of Richwood, which gives in the language of its original proprietor, Philip Plummer, the metes, bounds, streets, alleys, dedicated lots, and all of the details of this village, which, in the past ten years has been our pride, and the envy of surrounding villages:

[At this point the article contains the exact wording of the Richwood Town Plat, and has been omitted by Mr. Longberry.]

Some little time previous to this, Phillip Plummer purchased what was known as the Pelham Survey, and had laid it off into lots of land of 100 acres each.

In 1832, himself, Dr. John P. Bookins, and Absolom Carney, erected cabins and occupied them. Within the bounds of what is now Claibourne Township, there were at this time adult males all having families, as follows: Henry Schwartz, Edward Williams, John Clark, Jas. Clark, Henry Clark, George Clark, Nathaniel Wilson, Joseph Wilson, Adam Imbody, Eleazer Rose, Thomas Andrews, Adam Dilsaver, Wm Tonguet, Larkin Tonguet, Robert Cottrell, Robert McIntyre, Jacob Bennett, William Bennett, John Beem, and Zerah Linsley.

In 1833, there came into the Township, Wm. Jackson, John Dilsaver, Bazaleel Bridge, John Shisler, Benjamin Beem, Jacob Beem, Richard Irwin, and Aaron Beem, so much for township settlers.

June Picnic

The June meeting was a pot-luck picnic held at St. John Lutheran Church, located at the corner of St. Rt. 736 and Kendall Road. Nina Boerger and Barb Nicol, both members of the congregation, served as hostesses, welcoming twenty-two UCCOGS and guests. Nina prepared an excellent presentation of the history of the church and its members during the 171 years since it was established. While it would be wonderful if we could reproduce Nina's interesting and informative history in its entirety there just isn't space in this publication.

If any readers are interested in learning more, please, contact Nina Boerger (boerger@embarqumail.com) or Marie Bouic (bouic1@midohio.net). Or write to UCCOGS, PO Box 438, Marysville, OH 43040.

Originally, a congregation made up mostly of German immigrants, the surnames of the charter members are:

RAUSCH, BLUMENSCHNEID, ELL,
EMMERT, DASCHER, GOESZ, HEER,
HEGENDERFER, KREITLER, RIPPER,
RUPPRECHT, and three Americans,
BROWN, SEEGER, and BARTHOLOMEW

The first church building was dedicated in 1838 and burned in 1843. Therefore, the records of baptisms, marriages, and burials only date back to 1843 and the records of confirmation begin in 1844.

July Meeting With 4-H Kids

At the July 18th meeting members and guests were treated to a very special group of young people. They are members of various Union County 4-H clubs.

Michelle Darnell, a member of the Liberty Acres 4-H Club, and working on her third year the Family History Treasurer Hunt Project. She did more research on her Darnell surname and shared a picture of her third great grandmother, Martha Carter Newlove.

Jessica Alley is a member of the Liberty Acres 4-H Club and is also doing her third year in the Family History Treasure Hunt Project. Jessica had been doing more research on her Welsh great-great-grandfather, Joseph Morgan and his son, Charles L. Morgan. She has written a page on both grandfathers and shared items she had purchased at a Welsh festival in Washington D.C. She has added more documents and sources to her notebook in the past year.

*Brock Johe, Steven Roush, Colleen Andrews,

Another third year Family History Treasure Hunt Project member, Brock Johe, of the Plain City Country Kids 4-H Club shared family history books on his Moorehead and the Johe Lineage. His Johe ancestors are from Germany; they sailed to America in the mid-eighteenth century. They originally settled in Pennsylvania. Brock has military records and pictures in his collection.

Steven Roush, a first year genealogy project and member of the Plain City Country Kids 4-H Club shared his five generation chart with pictures of all his grandparents. Surnames he is working on are Roush, Rausch, Nicol, Weinlein, Lucas, and Leach. He is collecting sources and documents for his records.

Colleen Andrews, a second year member of the genealogy project and member of the Town and Country 4-H Club shared her family tree poster and photo tree. She also shared her notebook and family history books. The surnames she is researching are Andrews, Roney, and Zahn that have lived in Union County. Her most exciting find so far is the will of Archibald Andrews who died in Watkins in 1907 and was a Civil War veteran.

Pioneer Profiles

The following article is the second of what we hope will be a continuing series about the Union County ancestors of members already inducted into the Union County Pioneers. It is sincerely hoped that all members will find the profiles both interesting and useful in their own research.

John Kilgore Dodge

pamiam@austin.rr.com

The ancestors of our Dodge Union County pioneers were descended from Tristram Dodge, who came from the north of England to Taunton, Massachusetts, removing to Block Island, Rhode Island in 1661. In 1812, a descendant, Judah Dodge and his family, including his son Judah, II, then 17, moved to Ohio in a covered wagon. Oral history tells that Judah was a big strong man who was able to lift a wagon blocking their path so that they could continue on their trip.

Another story tells of this same ancestor driving home with a sled of freshly butchered pork when he was attacked by wolves. Judah let the horses run, staying on the back of the sled to beat the wolves off with a sled stake. One of the wolves was brave enough to get close to Judah on the sled, but was clubbed to death by our ancestor, and reportedly that wolf hide was on the floor of their cabin for many years.

Judah I was married to Annis Chapman. There is speculation that there is a family connection to Johnny Appleseed (John Chapman), and Otto J. Dodge, who was Emma's uncle, said that he was told Johnny Appleseed was a frequent visitor to the homestead.

Judah I arrived in Union County in 1812, settling on the Crocker Smith farm in Darby Township. He later moved to Jerome, and in 1836 purchased 400 acres of dense forest near New California. He died there in 1856, and he and his wife are buried in New California.

Judah II cleared land with his father, and later married Elizabeth Kilgore on July 4th 1816. They moved to Marysville in 1867, and Judah died there three years later. I believe he is buried in the cemetery at New California.

John Kilgore Dodge was reared in Jerome Township, and married Rebecca Rudolph Sept. 29, 1855, in Delaware County, and in 1857 they moved to Mill Creek Township. Rebecca, according to oral history, was part Native American, although there is no official proof of this. I have a photograph of her that would lend credence to the belief, but in those days Native American blood was a thing to keep quiet, not to record. There is a tale, told by the Dodge sons, that a man wrapped in a blanket used to wander in to visit from time to time, and when they asked who he was, they were told he was a cousin. Many relics of Indian life were found on that farm.

To this day, there family members who carry the Dodge name as a middle name, and I do believe there are some in Union County and elsewhere who have that surname. It's one to take pride in.
