Notes: Several members of our chapter traveled to Fort Wayne, In. to the Allen County Public Library as our yearly July research trip. The library is now rated second only to the library of the Church of Latter Day Saints research center in Utah, for all types of research. In spite of orange barrels along the route, a detour for car repair for at least one car, and getting lost (or at least strayed), we all managed to get to the library in one piece, and a good time was had by all.

Have you sent in your order for the reprint of the History of Union County, 1883? If not, you have missed the Aug. 1 deadline for special members' price, but it should be available from Heritage Press sometime in October.

Don't forget to mail your 4 or 5-generation charts to our secretary for publication in our newsletter, and for adding to our library files for research by others. Please add a note of permission to publish.

Get well wishes to Elaine Chapman, one of our faithful helpers.

HAVE A GOOD SUMMER, AND HAPPY HUNTING!

ESSEX METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH

The Essex Methodist Protestant Church was organized in 1840, by Rev. John Hunt, at the house of John Cheney. It started with only six members--John Cheney and Sarah, his wife, Thomas Chapman and Hannah, his wife, and David S. Allen and his wife Elizabeth. Services were continued at the residence of Mr. Cheney for a few years, and were then transferred to the Essex Schoolhouse. A log meeting house was built in 1846, on a lot situated just east of the present Essex Schoolhouse. It was donated to the church by Thomas Chapman. The church here erected was a large hewed-log building, and the material was furnished, and the greater part of the labor performed, by the members. Thomas Chapman received, for finishing it, the sum of $60, which included the hardware bill. The congregation continued to worship in this church until 1869, when the present frame church was built. Its cost was about $1,400; the cost of the lot upon which it is erected, $100; and the cost of the bell, $125. It was dedicated in May, 1870, by Rev. J. H. Hamilton, of Tuscarawas County. The members who contributed most liberally to the new church were J. A. White, John Chapman, Rev. T. B. Cheney, D. A. White, D. R. White, Jason Chapman, George Temple, Jonathan Cheney, R. R. Randall, and H. Roberts.

The following list of pastors in charge of this church was prepared by two of the old and leading members, and is, perhaps, as free from errors as any list that can now be obtained: John Hunt, 1840-41; J. I. Devore and John Inskeep, 1841-42; J. I. Devore and O. P. Stephens, 1842-43; Revs. Edwards and O. P. Stephens, 1843-44; James Webster, 1844-45; Isaac Ensminger, 1845-46; J. B. Peat, 1846-47; T. D. Howe, 1847-48; O. P. Stephens and J. M. Flood, 1848-49; J. M. Flood, 1849-51; O. P. Stephens, 1851-53; J. W. Giddings, 1853-54; W. B. Warrington, 1854-55; E. J. Winans and J. Kain, 1855-56; R. Hussey and T. T. Kendrick, 1856-58; O. P. Stephens and A. M. Ravenscraft, 1858-59; I. N. McVay and O. P. Stephens, 1859-61; W. B. Evans and George Brown, Jr., 1861-62; W. B. Evans, 1862-63; R. Hussey, 1863-64; Daniel Kinney, 1864-65; R. Hussey, 1865-66; Revs. McDonnell and Stephens, 1866-67; J. M. Adams, 1867-69; J. W. Case, 1869-70; J. W. Shurltz, 1870-73; A. M. Hall, 1873-74; A. M. Ravenscraft, 1874-75; W. S. Sansom, 1875-76; T. H. Wilson, 1876-77; T. B. Graham, 1877-79; J. W. Spring, 1879-81; C. Cadwallader, 1881-82. William Hamilton, of Claibourne Township, was a local preacher of considerable note in early times. The church belonged to the Richwood Circuit till 1870, when it and the Davis church were united and denominated Rush Creek Circuit. In 1877, Rev. I. N. McVay conducted a revival, under the influence of which more than one hundred accessions were made to the church. The present membership is about one hundred.

Richwood Gazette, 5 Apr 1906--Miss Lydia Marsh of the O.W.U. at Delaware, spent Monday as the guest of Miss Anna Mealey of this place. The Ladies Ais society of the M.P church will hold an Easter supper, Friday evening, April 13, in the Cahill building on south Franklin street. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Heusner and daughter Marion, of Oberlin, Ohio, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hamilton on north Franklin street several days this week. RICHWOOD GAZETTE, 5 Apr 1906...Uncle Reuben's Letter "Something About Our Ancestors"

Dear friends: Washington is a great place for people to look up their ancestors. But if they knowed what kind uv weasel-eyed, knock-kneed scrubs was tryin' to claim relationship to 'em. they'd be a great commotion beyant the river Jordan. but being' a angel has its compensations aside from tootin' a horn er walkin' on golden streets.

The congressional library is where these guys hang out. They want to jine the D. A. R.'s, er the S. A. R.'s er the Mayflower society er some colonial organization, an' they'll work 14 hours a day tryin' to dig up some evidence that they kin hang up on_ an' appear blue-blooded. Mebbe its all right to be proud uv yer ancestors, but I don't know how they'd feel about us if they wuz to come back here an' ketch us at it. if these bug-hous descendants can't rake up nothin' satisfactory from the revolutionary or colonial records, they'll hire some slick feller to git up a pedigree fer 'em, an' mebbly a coat uv arms throwed in for an extra five-spot.

Now yer uncle don't know much about his ancestors an' he don't want ter. They never left him no evidence uv their distinguished regard in the way uv houses an' lands. an' so forth, which is the main point about ancestors. Yer uncle's great grandad ust to drive a yoke uv steers, an' I dunno as he wuz extry good at that. I expect that he wasted a good many cuss words plowin' among the stumps in Pennsylvanny an' Ohio. an' Navin' to cut hoop poles fer to git a little loose change to buy terbaccar an' corn meal. That is about the histry uv the excitin' life led by most of our pioneer ancestors, an' what's the use of lettin' on that we're some punkins on account uv a ancestor that wore barndoor breeches an' one suspender, an' shook his teeth out evry third day with a ager chill. uv course he fit the British. but you are durned lucky to go back that fur to a ancestor. Let the ancestor alone: he did the best he could mebbly, an' you owe it to him to let him rest in his grave in peace.

Yours sincerely, Reuben Hardscrabble
